At a session of said Court held in the City of Lansing,
County of Ingham, State of Michigan, on December
10, 2015.

PRESENT: Hon. Joyce Draganchuk
Circuit Judge

A four-count Complaint was filed on December 1, 2015. Plaintiff Matthew Raymond and Jamie Raymond are individuals and Plaintiffs Caleb Raymond and William Raymond are minor children. Plaintiffs allege breach of contract, negligence, and unjust enrichment in connection with a roof repair made to the home in which they live. The Summons indicates that the case comes under the jurisdiction of Business Court. A Notice of Assignment to Business Court was also filed with the Summons and Complaint, but the Notice was not completed and has no boxes checked to indicate how it comes within Business Court jurisdiction.

This case has been reviewed for Business Court eligibility and it is not eligible. To be eligible for Business Court, either both parties must be business enterprises or “one or more of the parties is a business enterprise and the other parties are its or their present or former owners, managers, shareholders, members, directors, officers, agents, employees, suppliers, or competitors, and the claims arise out of those relationships.” MCL 600.8031(1)(c). The Plaintiffs are individuals and not former owners or members of any kind in the Defendant business enterprise.

The Business Court does not have jurisdiction in this case. The case shall be retained by the judge to whom it was originally assigned by blind draw. The Clerk shall change the case code from CB, which is reserved only for Business Court cases, to the case code CZ.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
